The United States of America,

To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

Land Office at [illegible]

Patent No. [illegible]

Whereas, there has been deposited in the General Land Office of the United States a certificate of the Register of the Land Office at [illegible] whereby it appears that pursuant to the Act of Congress approved [illegible], entitled "An act [illegible]" the claimant has complied with all the requisitions of said act, and that the said claimant has been duly authorized to receive a patent for the land described in the said certificate, which said land has been surveyed in conformity to the official plat of the survey of the said land on file in the General Land Office, and is bounded and described as follows:

according to the Official Plat of the Survey of the said land returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General.

Now know ye, that there is therefore granted by the UNITED STATES unto the said [illegible] the said tract of land above described; TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said [illegible] and to his heirs and assigns forever.

In testimony whereof, I, [illegible], PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, have caused these letters to be made patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand, at the City of WASHINGTON, the [illegible] day of [illegible] in the year of our Lord [illegible] and of the Independence of the UNITED STATES the [illegible].

By the President: [illegible]

By [illegible], Secretary

[illegible], Recorder of the General Land Office
